PLACES OF INTEREST PORTIMÃO / PRAIA DA ROCHA

AUTÓDROMO / KARTÓDROMO INTERNACIONAL DO ALGARVE

Designed to be one of the best and most modern circuits in Europe, Autódromo Internacional do Algarve has maximum security conditions. The natural form of the land brought a single circuit with steep slopes that make driving a pleasure, since the curves and straights follow each other at a breakneck pace, and always with marked pending. These trace features allow the public a spectacular view, offering a broad and comprehensive visibility from any countertop. The Karting track is also a prime location for tests with artificially wet areas. It is undoubtedly a space for leisure and entertainment for fans, businesses, families and children, who will find here a place of great fun.

CASA MUSEU MANUEL TEIXEIRA GOMES

This space exposes the bibliographic collection of the writer and statesman Manuel Teixeira Gomes. Periodically various events take place such as concerts, recitals, gatherings, conferences and workshops.

PORTIMÃO HISTORICAL CENTRE

From medieval Portimão there are only a few rags of the city walls hidden by the houses. It is the architecture of the end of the 19th century and early 20th century that marks the profile of the historic centre, the two-storey houses, wrought iron balconies, ennobled masonry on the windows and doors, fronts with stone and ceramics bannisters, walls covered in tiles. The Town Hall occupies the former Palácio dos Viscondes de Bívar (XVIII century), a building with noble and classic lines.

JESUITS COLLEGE

The widest church of Algarve, features austere and majestic lines The school was built by Diogo Gonçalves, a nobleman that enriched in the Orient, which has a polychrome marble tomb inside the church. Built from 1660 to 1707, was widely repaired after 1755.

SANTA CATARINA DE RIBAMAR FORTRESS

Integrated, along with the fort of São João de Arade in Ferragudo, the defenses of Portimão and its port against the corsairs and pirate attacks. Construction of the XVII / XVIII Centuries with excellent strategic position. Privileged viewpoint of the sea, river, beaches and cliffs, an excuse to enjoy the late afternoon sunset. Inside, there's an old chapel dedicated to Santa Catarina de Alexandria.

PLACES OF INTEREST PORTIMÃO / PRAIA DA ROCHA

NOSSA SENHORA DA CONCEIÇÃO CHURCH

Building from the 15th Century. Reconstructed in the XVIII century and remodelled in the XIX century. In the original building remains a beautiful Gothic portal, with decorated capitals, a gargoyle and buttresses. Interior with three naves. On the high altar, valuable golden altarpiece, with baroque decoration. Among the images, there is a St. Peter the Apostle (XVI century) and four ivory and rosewood crucifixes. Manueline style holy water fonts (XVI century). Sillar wall with tiles from various sources (XVII century).

PORTIMÃO MUSEUM

Is housed in the former canning factory Feu and opened to the public in May 2008. The collection of the Museum consists of industrial and ethnographic heritage, particularly the canning industry, shipbuilding, fishing, stowage, lithography, casting, metalwork, smokehouse items, transports among others. It also displays archaeological evidence from various terrestrial and aquatic archaeological sites. In 2011 won the first edition of DASA - Labour World Award 2011, awarded in Dortmund, distinguished as the best museum related to work.

QUINTA PEDAGÓGICA DE PORTIMÃO

Occupying an area of 2 hectares, divided into distinct zones of cultivation, animal shelter, a lake area, green and leisure areas, Quinta Pedagógica de Portimão recreates a rural farmhouse where parents and children can learn together about the rustic life outside urban centres.
